

Signal Hill Arts Centre

424 10th Avenue S

Built in 1912, this unique five story municipal heritage facility is owned and operated by the City of Weyburn (Leisure Services Department). Purchased in 1985 specifically as an arts and culture building, Signal Hill Arts Centre has become the cultural heart beat of the Weyburn & area communities. It houses a fully equipped pottery studio, photography darkroom, kitchen, gallery, office spaces, multi-purpose rooms, and is home to the South Saskatchewan Regiment Museum display. There is ample parking and is wheelchair accessible.

Art, culture and leisure programming for all ages held year round. Every 2 months, the Signal Hill Gallery, located on the 2nd floor, showcases artists from Weyburn and area. Programs such as the Local Art Adjudication, May Clay, Culture Days and the Weyburn Wheat Festival are just some of the activities held at the Centre.
