Notes

1. Subsection 53 (2) of The Education Act, 1995, provides as follows:

“Where the minority religious faith, whether Protestant or Roman Catholic, has established a separate school division, a property owner is to be assessed with respect to his or her property:

- a) in the case of a member of the minority religious faith, as a taxpayer of the separate school division;
- b) in any other case, as a taxpayer of the public school division.”

2. Subsection 297 (1) of The Education Act, 1995, provides that where a property is “held by two or more persons as joint tenants or tenants in common, each holder is to be assessed in proportion to his or her interest in the property in the separate or public school division of which he or she is a taxpayer for school purposes.”
