Address: 424-10 AVE SE, Weyburn

Our Mission:

Our mission is to provide the opportunity for everyone to experience art in a fun and encouraging atmosphere.

Our Purpose:

The purpose and role of the WAC is to collect, protect, preserve, conserve, manage and exhibit art and craftwork with illustrates the artistic activities of Weyburn artists in particular, Saskatchewan artists in general and nationally and internationally known artists who have had a significant role in the development of the arts in Saskatchewan.

WAC exhibits, protects and conserves local and traveling exhibitions that relate to the development of the arts regionally, provincially and nationally. WAC conducts an education program that stimulates interest and provides information about art exhibitions to residents of the City of Weyburn and surrounding area.

Our Values:

WAC, through its programs and exhibitions, illustrates that it values working together towards the common goal of developing community awareness and appreciation of the arts. WAC values the inclusion of the local arts community and the promotion of arts education. WAC recognizes the value of and continues to seek sufficient funding for diversified programming which is essential to promote the benefits that the arts bring to community and family.

Our Vision:

WAC's vision for the future is: to insure that the visual arts are an integral part of the lives of the people of Weyburn and the surrounding area; that the general public comes to understand and appreciate a wide variety of art forms; that Weyburn and area residents come to recognize that the arts play an important role in the lives of everyday people.

What We Do:

WAC produces a number of art events in the community every year. Some of those events are:

James Weir People's Choice Reception
Local Adjudication Reception
Culture Days events
"pARTy on the Hill" art sale
"Gifted" holiday art sale
(formerly known as 4 Festive Floors)

Members also regularly assist the Curator with the installation of exhibitions, and assist with receptions year round.

WAC also supplies art displays for every Weyburn Concert Series event
