

Submission to Permanent Collection

Thank you for your interest in the City of Weyburn's Permanent Collection and the new donation process.

The Permanent Collection consists of over 200 pieces, by over 100 artists. Every piece in the collection has a tie to Weyburn, the southeast area, or the province as a whole. The City of Weyburn Permanent Collection is owned by the City of Weyburn and is housed in temperature/humidity controlled storage room in the basement of City Hall. Many pieces are displayed throughout City Hall and are regularly exhibited at the Allie Griffin Art Gallery.

The Weyburn Arts Council, managing body of the Permanent Collection on behalf of the City of Weyburn, welcomes donations of works that will enrich the collection. The Weyburn Arts Council welcomes submissions or donations throughout the year.

For more information or to discuss submission requirements, please contact the Weyburn Arts Council's Curator:

Regan Lanning

(306)848-3219 or weyburnartscouncil@weyburn.ca

All acquisitions, whether by purchase or donation, must be carefully considered in light of the Permanent Collection's Collection Management Policy regarding relevance, quality, condition, cost and source. If you would like a copy of the City of Weyburn/Weyburn Art Council's Collection Management Policy, please email our curator. Decisions regarding the selections process will be made by our Curator and the Gallery & Collections Steering Committee.

Artist Eligibility

Submissions are accepted from individual artists, or from anyone legally entitled to donate a work of art.

Artists' must have a tie to Saskatchewan, ideally to the Weyburn/Southeast region of Saskatchewan.

Submission Requirements:

- Submission Form completed and signed
- Photographs of art being submitted.
 - All images should be in jpeg format or printed out in hard copy
 - If submitting digital files, please use file names that clearly identify the works.
 - If submitting multiple pieces for consideration, each should be photographed separately.
