Welcome to WEYBURN

THE BEST
PLACE TO LIVE
IN THE PRAIRIES

Named Best Place to Live in the Prairies by MoneySense magazine for years. We invite you to explore our rich history, experience our beautiful parks and trails, and attend our exciting events.

To everyone exploring this visitor guide, welcome to Weyburn. We are excited to showcase what our community has to offer. Enjoy the variety of activities that Weyburn has to share, from historic journeys to scenic sunsets. Be surprised by our culinary experiences and local boutiques. Discover the richness of our community through the pages of this guide, or better yet, come and visit for yourself!

Marcel Roy, Mayor of Weyburn

On behalf of the RM of Weyburn Council, the staff, our citizens and business community, it is a great honor to welcome you to Weyburn and area. This visitor guide is a perfect starting point to experience all that the area has to offer. Our community has something for everyone, whether it is sports and leisure, shopping and restaurants or arts and culture. Take some time to experience the beauty and hospitality of a place that we all believe to be truly amazing. You won't be disappointed.

Be sure to check out the world's largest private silver collection. This collection was amassed and donated by the RM's very own Charlie Wilson and is located inside the Soo Line Historical Museum.

Hunting & Fishing

Weyburn and the surrounding area are the ideal stop for your next hunting and fishing get away. From world-class walleye fishing to unbeatable upland game, waterfowl and big game Southeast Saskatchewan has everything you need for an exceptional outdoors adventure.

Hunting

Some of the finest upland hunting can be found just south of Weyburn. Hunters from across North America travel to the region to hunt Hungarian Partridge and Sharptail Grouse. As well, come late fall, Weyburn is home to a very healthy population of waterfowl. Canadian residents can find exceptional big game opportunities including whitetail deer, moose and elk.

For licensing and regulation information visit www.saskatchewan.ca/environment

Fishing

Nickle Lake is only 5 minutes east of Weyburn on highway #39, Nickle Lake has walleye, perch and northern pike and is periodically stocked. A fish cleaning area is supplied. There are two boat launch areas and a floating dock for loading and unloading passengers.

Prize walleye and big pike await you half an hour east of Weyburn at the Rafferty Reservoir with over 50 km of pristine fishing available. For anglers and recreational boaters, the boat launch facility at Mainprize Regional Park provides access to the Rafferty Reservoir.

*For accommodations see pages 7-9 for further information.
