YOUR GUIDE TO CITY OF WEYBURN RECREATION FACILITIES

Recreation and Leisure

Arts and Culture

Festivals and Events

The City of Weyburn and the RM of Weyburn No. 67 are located on traditional lands, referred to as Treaty 4 territory.

Treaty 4 territory is part of the original lands of the Nêhiyawak (Cree), Nahkawé (Saulteaux) and Nakota and homeland of the Métis, Dakota and Lakota.

When Canada (British Crown) wanted to access the land in what is now western Canada, they negotiated the Numbered Treaties 1 - 11 with First Nations who held their traditional lands on the prairies. The Nêhiyawak, Nahkawê, and Nakota Nations had traditional lands in what is now Treaty 4 territory. Therefore, when Canada (British Crown) wanted to access the lands in this area, they had to make treaty with Nêhiyawak, Nahkawé and Nakota Nations.

The Dakota, Lakota and Métis did not have traditional lands in this area when Treaty 4 was made, however, a number of Dakota, Lakota and Métis people were settled on these lands prior to and at the time Treaty 4 was made September 15, 1874, therefore, we acknowledge Treaty 4 as their homeland.

We respect and honour the Treaties that were made on all territories. We acknowledge the harms and mistakes of the past, and we are committed to moving forward in partnership with Indigenous Nations in the spirit of reconciliation and collaboration. We are all treaty people.

As the phrase "We are all treaty people" implies, both Indigenous and non-Indigenous people in Saskatchewan are part of the treaty. Acknowledging territory and treaty shows recognition of and respect for Indigenous Peoples. It is recognition of their presence in our past, our present and in our future. Recognition and respect are essential elements of establishing and maintaining healthy, reciprocal relationships that are the key to reconciliation.

Reception: October 6 at 7 p.m.

By reimagining Japanese kimonos and kimono sashes (obis), Gaia Symphony invites the viewer to consider their resonance and presence on earth through myriad of senses. The works in this exhibition use vintage kimonos, including the artist's mother's and great aunt's, carefully taken apart and reconstructed.

"This exhibition invites the viewer to listen to the symphony played by Gaia, our planet earth," Yokozawa Farquharson writes. "Viewing this presentation of Gaia with our eyes, we are enabled to hear the music of Gaia as if with our ears and ultimately our inner being."

Spirit of Nature - Looking Beyond Yourself

Phyllis Poitras-Jarrett

The Spirit of Nature - Looking Beyond Yourself features fifteen paintings of different animals and insects. Each creature's silhouette is filled with intricate Métis floral beadwork patterning. Swirling around the forms of the fauna is a diaphanous grey fog, a representation of the spirit world. Phyllis says "Each animal painting is adorned with a unique, colourful, symmetrical Métis floral beadwork design...Each bead, flower and animal are a part of something greater. Within each painting, the grey background and white flowers represent the greater universe. Hidden in each painting is a glass spirit bead. This bead, in traditional Métis beadwork, was an off colour or misplaced bead. The spirit bead symbolizes humility and it reminds us, humans are not perfect. Therefore, we need to learn to be mindful that each day is an opportunity to make improvements in ourselves for the betterment of "All of Our Relations"."
