

CITY OF WEYBURN WALK OF FAME NOMINATION

2027 Induction Year

The City of Weyburn Walk of Fame was established to identify and honour the outstanding achievements of citizens who have brought distinction to Weyburn through their career, leadership, service or contributions beyond the local community.

Nominees must have lived in the City of Weyburn or surrounding area for a minimum of five years at any point during their lifetime. A specific Weyburn or area connection is required and must include a City of Weyburn street address, Weyburn-area residence, or Weyburn post office box number.

The Walk of Fame recognizes individuals who have achieved distinction nationally or internationally in the following formal categories:

- Arts & Entertainment
- Athletics & Recreation
- Agriculture
- Academics & Literature
- Business & Industry
- Humanitarianism
- Medicine, Science & Technology
- Other area of outstanding achievement

A maximum of two inductees may be selected for the 2027 induction year. Inductees are recognized with the installation of a permanent plaque and public recognition at a City of Weyburn ceremony.

Please complete the nominee information below. Submit the required responses and supporting documentation as separate attachments. The committee will evaluate nominations based solely on the information submitted.

CITY OF WEYBURN WALK OF FAME NOMINATION

Eligibility

This section is essential to confirming eligibility. The nominee's Weyburn connection must be clearly documented and supported with specific dates, addresses or other verifiable details.

Guideline to see expansion on. Please 500 – 1,000 words.*

1. Provide the nominee's specific Weyburn or area address history.

This is a key eligibility requirement. The nominee must have lived in the City of Weyburn or surrounding area for a minimum of five years. Please provide the most complete information available, including City of Weyburn street addresses, Weyburn-area residences or Weyburn post office box numbers. If exact dates are unknown, provide the best available estimate.

2. Describe the nominee's connection to Weyburn.

Include the nominee's personal, family, educational, professional, volunteer or community ties to Weyburn, and explain why this connection is an important part of their life story.

3. Explain how Weyburn influenced the nominee's life, career or achievements.

Please describe the role Weyburn played in the nominee's development. Identify the people, mentors, teachers, coaches, employers, organizations, community experiences or opportunities in Weyburn that helped shape the nominee's path.

4. Describe how the nominee has demonstrated leadership and dedication in their field.

Detail education, training, career history and professional development to the nominee's field or area of achievement. Explain the effort, commitment, discipline, innovation, service, mentorship, volunteerism, community involvement, professional contribution or long-term dedication the nominee has shown. Include both formal roles and meaningful informal contributions, where relevant.

5. Describe the nominee's most notable accomplishments.

Include honours, records, publications, performances, leadership roles, major projects, inventions, discoveries, advocacy, community initiatives or other achievements. Where possible, identify the organization, level of recognition and supporting source for each accomplishment.

6. Describe the nominee's provincial, national or international achievements.

This section is important to the committee's review and should be comprehensive. Explain how the nominee's work, career or achievements reached beyond Weyburn and contributed to their field, industry, community or society. Clearly identify the level of recognition and why the achievement is significant beyond the local level.

7. Explain the nominee's lasting impact.

Describe how the nominee's work has improved their field, advanced knowledge, inspired others, served communities, changed public understanding, supported others, or contributed to positive change in society.

8. Summarize why this nominee should be inducted into the City of Weyburn Walk of Fame.

Provide a clear and compelling summary connecting the nominee's Weyburn roots, career or life achievements, and broader impact. This section should help the committee understand why the nominee belongs on the Walk of Fame.
